OBJECTIVE

With 1 year of experience studying and working as a front-end web developer, including a solid understanding of back-end positions, I am aiming to gain practical experience, expand my knowledge, and grow as a professional in the field of web development. My ultimate goal is become a full-stack web developer.

- To achieve this objective, I am actively broadening my skill set by delving into front-end development. Additionally, I am dedicated to enhancing my English proficiency, as it plays a crucial role in professional growth. I am fully committed to investing the necessary effort and hard work required to reach these milestones.
